

Thursday, January 15, 2009

Dr. James J. Kelleher

Education

Bachelor of Arts degree in Government: Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

Master of Arts degree in Hispanic Civilization: New York University, Master in Spain program, New York, NY

Doctorate in Educational Administration: Boston College, Newton, MA

Career

2002- Present: Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum, Instruction and Staff Development: Scituate Public Schools

2000-2002: Director of Secondary Curriculum, Dover, NH Public Schools

1995 - 2000: Spanish Teacher at Brockton High School, Wellesley High School and Wayland High School

Friday, January 16, 2009

Marie H. Doyle

Education

Bachelor of Arts degree in American Studies and Education: Merrimack College,
Andover, MA

Master of Education degree in Educational Research: Northeastern University,
Boston, MA

Coursework at University of Lowell and Harvard University

Career

2004 - Present: Superintendent of Schools, Carlisle Public Schools

1995 - 2004: Middle School Principal, Newton Public Schools

1992 - 1995: Assistant Principal, System Wide Curriculum Specialist,
Foxborough Public Schools

1981 - 1992: Teacher at Chenery Middle School, Belmont Public Schools

1978- 1981: Teacher in Lowell, MA and at Perkins School for the Blind

Wednesday, January 21, 2009

Dr. Richard J. Hoffmann

Education

Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education: State University of New York, Geneseo, NY

Master of Education degree in Education / Therapeutic Programs : Boston University, Boston, MA

Doctorate degree in Education: University of Massachusetts, Lowell, MA

Career

2000 - Present: Superintendent of Schools, Ashland Public Schools

1998 - 2000: Superintendent of Schools, North Attleborough Public Schools

1988 - 1998: Executive Assistant to the Superintendent, Lawrence Public Schools

1986 - 1988: Magnet Schools Supervisor, Lawrence Public Schools

1979 - 1986: Program and Executive Director, Creative Educational Associates, Boston

1975 - 1979: Teacher in Saugus and Boston Public Schools

Thursday, January 22, 2009

Dr. George H. Entwistle, 3rd

Education

Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology: University of Massachusetts Amherst, MA

Master of Arts degree in Psychology: Assumption College, Worcester, MA

Doctorate in Education in Educational Leadership : Boston University, Boston, MA

Career

2004 - Present: Superintendent of Schools, Falmouth, ME

2003 - 2004: Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Maine District 28
(Camden, Rockport, Hope, Appleton and Lincolnville)

2001 - 2003: Vice President, Human Resources and Organization Development
Vortechnics, Portland ME

1997 - 2001: Vice President, Human Resources and Organizational Development
Hunter Panels, LLC, Portland, ME

1994 - 1997: Vice President Human Resources and Administrative Services
NRG Barriers

1987 - 1994: Regional Human Resources Manager, Weyerhaeuser Company

2002 - Present: Part Time Faculty member at University of Maine system, Boston
University and Iberoamericana University in Santo Domingo