

Non-Instructional Services for Students

The Belmont Public Schools shall provide such non-instructional services as it determines are necessary to enable students' effective participation in district programs and to promote academic achievement. Such services may include health, guidance and counseling services.

Adopted 3/31/10