Parent "Brag Sheet" for Private School Recommendations

Although students can set up an appointment to meet with their school counselor to discuss their strengths/weaknesses, accomplishments, and goals as part of the private school application process, parents can provide additional insight about their child that can be extremely helpful. We hope you will use this sheet to better acquaint us with your son or daughter.

What do you consider to be your child's outstanding accomplishments over the past few years?

In what areas has your child shown the most growth and development over the past few years?

What do you consider to be your child's outstanding personal qualities?

What clubs, organizations, or activities does your child belong to or participate in?

If you could describe your son or daughter in five adjectives, what would they be?
