Belmont Special Education Advisory Council

Who We Are:

The Belmont Special Education Advisory Council (BSEAC) is a parent advisory group as mandated by Massachusetts state law. We are family members of children with disabilities who educate each other, collaborate with school professionals, and exchange ideas and information. We welcome participation from all interested community members.

What We Do:

- ▶ We advocate for a quality education for all students.
- ▶ We advise the Belmont school administration and school committee on special education issues.
- ▶ We assist families to effectively participate in the special education process.
- ▶ We acknowledge school professionals and community members in their efforts to support our children.

How We Do It:

- ▶ We provide workshops, presentations and discussions for families and professionals.
- ▶ We meet regularly with school administrators and the school committee.
- ▶ We communicate via our listserv and our website.
- ▶ We host the annual Appreciation Awards evening.
- ▶ We offer a resource library at the Chenery Middle School.

How Can We Help Each Other?

- ▶ Let us know who you are and what you need.
- ▶ Join the listserv to find out what's going on.
- ▶ Share your ideas.
- ▶ Contribute your time and talents.

What's Coming Up?
